New this season, meet the world's first-ever portable all-process machine, Rebel EMP 205ic AC/DC, which runs every process like it was born to. And then there's the most industrial Rebel yet – Rebel EMP 285ic. New or not, every Rebel outperforms the competition and stands up to any challenge with a rugged multi-handle roll cage, steel unibody construction, and IP23S-level protection for outdoor use.
